7. The Revising Authority may of his own motion direct the inclusion of the name of any person whose qualification entitles him to be registered and order the correction of any clerical error or incomplete entry in the preliminary roll as published, which he is satisfied should be made, and may likewise order to be expunged from the roll any incomplete entry which cannot be so corrected or the name of any person—

(a) whose qualification as entered in the roll is insufficient to entitle him to be registered; or

(b) who is incapacitated from voting by reason of any disqualification or disability imposed by or under the provisions of these rules; or

(c) who is proved to him to be dead; or

(d) who has been entered in more than one place on the roll of the same constituency, from such other place or places;

Provided that before passing an order under clause (a), (b) or (c), the Revising Authority shall, if this can conveniently be done, give an opportunity to any person concerned to be heard.

8. The Commissioner, may, of his own motion, at any time prior to the re-publication of the roll exercise any or all of the powers conferred on the Revising Authority by the provisions of Rule 7.

9. (1) The rolls with the amendments, if any, shall be finally published in the manner specified in Rule 2 on the 13th February 1950 in respect of the territorial divisions, and the 20th day of February 1950 in respect of the labour electorates.

(2) Two copies of the roll as finally published shall be certified by the Commissioner and forwarded to Government for being deposited.

(3) Such number of copies of the roll as finally published as the Commissioner deems to be sufficient shall be kept by him for sale.

10. The following papers, namely,—

(i) the preliminary electoral rolls published under the provisions of Rule 1;

(ii) claims and objections having reference to the preliminary rolls, the registers recording such claims and objections and the orders of the Revising Authority thereon; and

(iii) the electoral rolls finally published under the provisions of Rule 9, shall be preserved in the record room of the Commissioner until the expiry of one year from the date of election.

11. Any member of the public shall have a right to inspect any of the papers specified in the last preceding rule on payment of a fee of Two Rupees and to obtain certified and attested copies thereof on payment of the same fees as are prescribed for copies of revenue records.

12. The electoral roll for a constituency shall come into force from the date of its final publication under the provisions of Rule 9.

ANNEXURE

Manner of election of Councillors to the Corporation of Bangalore by the members of the Mysore Chamber of Commerce, the members of the Bangalore Trades Association and the Bangalore Commercial Association.

PART I

MANNER OF ELECTION OF COUNCILLORS BY THE MEMBERS OF THE MYSORE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

1. The election shall be held on such day as the Committee of the Chamber for the time being shall appoint, but not less than seven clear days' notice of the date of election shall be given.

2. The voting shall be by ballot and the ballot box shall be placed from 10 A.M. to 5 P.M. of the appointed day in the room in which the meetings of the Chamber are usually held.

3. The ballot box shall be opened by the Chairman or in his absence the Vice-Chairman and the Secretary on the evening of the appointed day or as soon thereafter as possible, and the result of the ballot declared forthwith.

4. Each member of the Chamber shall be entitled to vote for as many candidates as there are vacancies to be filled, but no member shall be at liberty to give more than one vote to the same candidate. Any ballot paper on which votes are given for more candidates than there are persons to be elected or on which more than one vote is given to the same person shall be invalid.

5. The candidates who have received the largest number of votes shall be declared duly elected. Where an equality of votes is found to exist between any two or more candidates and the addition of one vote to any one or more of such candidates will entitle him or them to be declared duly elected, the Chairman or in his absence the Vice-Chairman shall decide by drawing lots, to which one or more of such candidates such additional vote shall be deemed to have been given.

6. The names of the candidates declared duly elected shall be forthwith reported by the Chairman or in his absence by the Vice-chairman to the Government for publication in the official Gazette.

7. In the event of a casual vacancy the procedure laid down in rules 1 to 6 shall be followed in electing a member to fill the vacancy.

PART II.

MANNER OF ELECTION OF COUNCILLORS BY THE MEMBERS OF THE BANGALORE TRADES ASSOCIATION.

1. The election shall be held at a meeting of the Bangalore Trades Association specially convened for the purpose on such day as the Committee of the said Association shall appoint but not less than seven clear days' notice of the date of the election shall be given.

2. The voting shall be by ballot. Each member of the Bangalore Trades Association and, in the case of a joint-stock company which is a member of the said Association, such person as the company may have notified as its representative under Article 3 of the Articles of Association shall be entitled to vote for one candidate.

3. The candidate who has received the largest number of votes shall be declared duly elected. If an equality of votes is found to exist between any two or more candidates and the addition of one vote to any one or more of such candidates will entitle him or them to be declared duly elected, the Chairman, or in his absence the member present at the meeting, shall decide, by drawing lots, to which one or more of such candidates such additional vote shall be deemed to have been given.

4. The names of the candidates declared duly elected shall be forthwith reported by the Chairman or in his absence by the member presiding at the meeting to the Government for publication in the official Gazette.

5. In the event of a casual vacancy the procedure laid down in rules 1 to 4 shall be followed to fill the vacancy.

PART III.

MANNER OF ELECTION OF COUNCILLORS BY THE MEMBERS OF THE BANGALORE COMMERCIAL ASSOCIATION.

1. The election shall be held at a meeting of the Bangalore Commercial Association specially convened for the purpose on such day as the Committee of the said Association shall appoint but not less than seven clear days' notice of the date of the election shall be given.

2. The voting shall be by ballot. Each member of the Bangalore Commercial Association and, in the case of a joint-stock company which is a member of the said Association, such person as the company may have notified as its representative under Article 3 of the Articles of Association shall be entitled to vote for one candidate.

3. The candidate who has received the largest number of votes shall be declared duly elected. If an equality of votes is found to exist between any two or more candidates and the addition of one vote to any one or more of such candidates will entitle him or them to be declared duly elected, the Chairman, or in his absence the member present at the meeting, shall decide, by drawing lots, to which one or more of such candidates such additional vote shall be deemed to have been given.

4. The names of the candidates declared duly elected shall be forthwith reported by the Chairman or in his absence by the member presiding at the meeting to the Government for publication in the official Gazette.

5. In the event of a casual vacancy the procedure laid down in rules 1 to 4 shall be followed to fill the vacancy.
